Dates

- The SABG Spring 2026 meeting will be on Sunday 2nd April 2023, at Badger's Farm Community Centre, Winchester. In the morning, Paul Lewis will speak on his work breeding hardy Gladiolus hybrids, and in the afternoon Paul Cumleton will give the second part of his planned series of talks "Sorting out the Massonias" and Rodney Sims will show a video "Wildflower Extravaganza", with magnificent scenes of South African flowers together with close-ups of named species. See Spring 2026 meeting for more details.
- For NAAS members, on Wednesday 26th April Paul Cumleton will give a Zoom talk on "Nerines & Other Amaryllids in My Bulb Collection".
- The following SABG meeting has been provisionally booked for Sunday 22nd October 2023. More details will follow.

News

- New additions to our Digital library include: Pauline Perry (1990) Bulbinella -- a neglected garden plant?, Veld and Flora, December 1990 [7 November 2025]
- Graham Duncan visited the UK again in October 2025, during which his main purpose was to photograph Nerines in cultivation. Thanks to an invitation by SABG member Peter Kohn, Graham gave a talk entitled "Kirstenbosch, the most beautiful garden in Africa, and its collection of South African bulbs", in the Dorothy Fox Education Centre in Sheffield Botanical Gardens on October 14th, attended by about 100 people. The meeting was hosted by the Friends of the Botanical Gardens, Sheffield, of which Peter is currently Acting Chair. [15 October 2025]
- The SABG is 21 this year! The original announcement about the formation of the Group appeared on 4th April 2004 in "The African Garden" web site run by David Fenwick.

Unfortunately the original site may no longer exist, but thanks to the excellent work by the people at the Internet Archive \(archive.org\) a preserved copy of the web site can be seen at The African Garden. [20 August 2025]

- The list of bulbs and seeds in the 2025 Bulb & Seed Exchange is available: requests from SABG members to reach Jon Evans by 30th August. [16 August 2025]
- A video of Graham Duncan's talk "Agapanthus, Lachenalia and a lifetime spent at Kirstenbosch Botanical Garden: 1979 - 2024" is available to SABG and NAAS members for viewing after the meeting. SABG members can email Richard for the link. [27 March 2025]
- The new Haemanthus book from Dee Snijman is available online at https://www.sanbi.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/2025_Strelitzia48.pdf [Jon Evans, 13 March 2025]

Remember that reasons for not receiving our emails include the following:

- You haven't notified us of a change of email address (tell me now!)
- Your inbox is full or your total email quota has been exceeded (download and delete old emails!)
- Your email provider classifies some of our emails as "spam" (look in your "Spam" or "Junk" folder and mark our emails as "not spam"!)
- Our software encountered an error when sending
- We've made a mistake (these things happen!)

We made changes (on 13 April 2022) intended to reduce the likelihood of our emails being regarded as spam. Please let me know (with a copy of the email) if anything from the SABG (with the SABG's Lachenalia logo, rather than from an individual member) ends up in your Spam or Junk email folder. Thank you.

I plan to include a photo gallery here. Until it is ready, why not visit bulbweb? Her web-site, now hosted by the SABG, contains over 1,400 photographs of plants in 175 genera (not all of them are South African).

About the Group

The SABG is based in the UK and is for anyone interested in growing the beautiful and diverse bulbous plants of South Africa and neighbouring countries. You do not need to be an expert (I'm not!) or live in the UK, but our meetings have all been in England so far.

The objective of the Southern African Bulb Group is to further the understanding of the cultivation of Southern African bulbs, where 'bulbs' is used in the broad sense to encompass bulb-, corm- and tuber- possessing Southern African plants, which are mostly 'monocots' (plants with strap-like leaves and flower parts in threes or sixes) but also including 'dicots' (with broad leaves and frequently five-petalled flowers) such as Oxalis.

Our activities include two meetings per year with talks and plant sales (recently these have been in Winchester in southern England), an annual bulb and seed exchange, and a newsletter with three or four issues per year.

Many of these plants come from the former Cape Province of South Africa, now the Northern, Western and Eastern Cape Provinces, and are easy to grow in a cool greenhouse or a sunny conservatory or window sill. They usually provide colourful flowers in autumn and winter and need a dry period in summer, because they are mostly winter growers from the winter rainfall areas of South Africa. Some are summer growers and a few of these will grow outside in southern or sheltered parts of the UK, such as Agapanthus, some Nerines and Tulbaghias, etc. Others, like Lachenalia, are real jewels to brighten up your conservatory when not much else is in flower.
